Mannatech Promotes Key Executives, Supports International Expansion

Advances sales, finance, human resources and international expansion roles

(COPPELL, Texas) February 26, 2010 – Mannatech, Incorporated (NASDAQ: MTEX - News), a global pioneer in the development of high-quality health, weight and fitness and skin care solutions based on nutritional science, announced the promotions of Natalie Clark to senior vice president, North America; Gary Spinell to senior vice president, finance and administration; Landen Fredrick to vice president, North American sales; Sandra McLean, PHR, to vice president, human resources; and Matt Rumsa to vice president, international expansion, as part of an ongoing effort to support global expansion initiatives.

“Each promotion recognizes the individual contributions these talented people have provided to Mannatech and advances the company’s management team development and executive leadership for the future of the company,” said Dr. Robert A. Sinnott, MNS, PhD, co-chief executive officer and chief science officer of Mannatech. “This team is equipped to help guide our organization to the next level of excellence through international expansion and providing our high-quality, scientifically backed wellness products to consumers around the world.”

The newly promoted executives include:

- Natalie Clark, Senior Vice President, North America

Clark has been with Mannatech since 1995 and has more than 15 years experience in the direct selling industry. She has overseen the implementation of Mannatech’s strategic business plan, compliance department, call center, distribution center and development of the company’s award-winning global compensation plan. Clark will now report directly to Dr. Robert Sinnott, co-CEO and CSO.

- Gary Spinell, Senior Vice President, Finance and Administration

Spinell has provided four years of service to Mannatech and will continue to oversee human resource functions, investor relations, risk management activities and serve as treasurer. Prior to Mannatech, Spinell was treasurer for Expedia and Hotels.com as well as vice president at Blockbuster.

- Landen Fredrick, Vice President, North American Sales

Fredrick has been with Mannatech for four years serving as senior director of tools and training. He now reports directly to Natalie Clark. Previously, he served as a consultant to Mannatech, providing guidance on web development. Prior to Mannatech, Fredrick founded and served as president of Kilian Fredrick advertising.

- Sandra McLean, PHR, Vice President, Human Resources

McLean has been with Mannatech for five years. She is a certified professional in human resources (PHR), an industry certification awarded by the HR Certification Institute for individuals working in the human resource management profession. Previously, she worked as an HR consultant for Thompson DBM and has held HR management positions in the manufacturing, healthcare and non-profit arenas. McLean’s background also includes management training for the University of Texas-Pan American continuing education system and she was recently nominated as HR Professional of the Year by the North Dallas Chamber of Commerce.

- Matt Rumsa, Vice President, International Expansion

Rumsa joined Mannatech in 2008 and has more than 20 years experience in the direct selling industry. With his promotion, Rumsa now reports to Randy Bancino, president of global business operations and expansion, and will focus on the development of global expansion initiatives. Prior to Mannatech, Rumsa served as director of business relations and support services for Amway.

“I’m excited that we are enhancing our international team, especially in the area of global expansion,” said Randy Bancino, president of global business operations and expansion at Mannatech. “These moves further position Mannatech to take advantage of a wide range of opportunities internationally.”

Many of Mannatech’s products are based on Real Food TechnologySM solutions, which provide consumers with products that contain standardized levels of natural and plant-sourced nutrients at nutritionally effective levels. Food-sourced ingredients are chosen from those scientifically proven to most benefit the human body. Mannatech offers the best alternative to synthetic vitamin and mineral products and so-called “super-juice” products.
